

Homework 13

Create a template for a Node class. The skeleton for some functions is provided, but for others it is not. Make this a template so that it works with `main.cpp`. In `main.cpp`, use the comparison functions to do insertions in the linked list that put the list into ascending order. I've marked the loops in `main.cpp` that need to be changed.